INDICTMENT RETURNED
CHARGING POSSESSION OF CRACK COCAINE

Mobile, AL - A three-count indictment was returned today by a Federal Grand Jury against Terry Jerome Salter, James Earl Ingram and Marcus Williams. Count One charged all three defendants with conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute a controlled substance (crack cocaine). Count Two and Count Three charged Salter and Williams with possession with intent to distribute crack cocaine respectively.

Agents for the 35th Judicial Circuit Task Force in Monroeville, Alabama, and other local law enforcement agencies, investigated the case and presented it to the U.S. Attorney's Office for prosecution. The prosecutor assigned to the case is Assistant United States Attorney Gregory A. Bordenkircher.

An indictment is a determination by a grand jury that there is probable cause to believe that offenses have been committed by a defendant. A defendant, of course, is presumed innocent until and unless he or she is proven guilty at trial.
